

XXX,XXX
participants*

Enhancing access to quality healthcare, particularly primary and preventive care, by improving the supply and distribution of healthcare professionals through community/academic educational partnerships.

Pipeline programs expose students to health careers and develop intent to pursue post-secondary education in primary healthcare professions.

XXX,XXX
grades 9-16 participants (many thousands more participated at the K-8 level)

XX,XXX
curriculum-based pipeline program participants

XX%
from disadvantaged backgrounds

XX%
from rural backgrounds

XX%
underrepresented minorities

Clinical training

improves readiness, willingness, and ability of health professions trainees to serve in primary care, and rural and underserved community settings.

facilitated

XX,XXX
unique student rotations

XX,XXX

total health professions students placed in rural and underserved locations (includes students in multiple rotations)

- XX,XXX medical students
- X,XXX associated health professions students

Training sites

- X,XXX primary care sites
- X,XXX located in medically underserved communities
- X,XXX located in rural areas

Continuing education programs address key issues in health professional shortage areas by providing health professionals with access to resources that support practice, reduce professional isolation, disseminate best practices, and improve quality of healthcare for medically underserved communities and health disparities populations.

XX,XXX
continuing education participants

employed in medically underserved communities